The Chicago Daily Law Bulletin, Friday, November 2, 2012

First Non-Billable Hours:

Find your way into desired practice

Apply to participate in a mentoring program through the Illinois Supreme Court Commission on Professionalism. Request a mentor in your practice area and ask for a back credenza project.

Ask a law school alumnus in your practice area if he or she would oversee your work on one of his or her back credenza projects.

Find a nonprofit to benefit from your volunteer work in your practice area; ask whether the nonprofit knows a seasoned attorney who can accept responsibility and bless your work.

^^^